Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

For a fairly long time, I had a relatively small number of broadband providers available to me. The major one that I opted for, Comcast, has continually had quite expensive pricing for its relatively slow cable service, and its customer service is a well-known joke. When it became available, I chose a competitive provider because they offered a superior product at a considerably lesser price, and I expected them to provide superior customer service - which they have absolutely done. Broadband competition has made my internet access - and by extension, my life - better, and I strongly oppose and effort to reduce or impede competition in the industry.
